

Hail Suppression Plan In Operation No Damage Here Yet!

(Ed. Note: We borrowed the majority of the following from the Calgary Herald, it covers the story as we see it, with the exception of what has happened since the hail suppression generators were put into operation. This part of the story appears elsewhere on this page.)

When you live in one of the worst hail areas in North America and have lost your entire crop almost every year for the past 10 years, you listen when somebody trots out a new-fangled gadget called a "hail suppressor."

It might work, it might not. The machine operators are cautious and some farmers are downright dubious. But more than 800 grain men in the Kneehill and Mountain View municipalities, 50 miles north of Calgary, have been willing to gamble $23,000 on the chance that it might do the trick.

One of them is Tom Morris of Didsbury. "If it succeeds, it will be the greatest thing that ever happened to agriculture in Alberta," he says emphatically.

And if it doesn't? The hail-weary farmers will shrug it off and continue to hope. They feel that a lost battle is better than none at all. "It's come to the point where we had to do something, take a chance," another man explained. They're the first in Canada to do so.

Stan Sifferman, a Denver meteorologist who is among those conducting the test for the farmers, stresses the experimental aspects of the project. "We don't guarantee anything," he explains, "least of all to eliminate hail. They'll continue to get hail here, they can't help it, what we hope to do is reduce the severity of it."

The appearance of the hail suppressor does not inspire any great confidence, either. It stands little more than three feet high and consists simply of an encased motor-driven hopper which burns off coke into the air.

Less simple is the reaction it seeks and the principles of physics involved. Sifferman explains it thusly: "The coke is impregnated with silver iodine which, when burned off, rises into the air as minute iodine crystals. These enter a cloud and attract moisture from it, dispersing the moisture into smaller drops that would normally form and diffusing the energy which forms clouds over a wider area."

In this way, the machine seeks to "suppress" the formation of large cumulus clouds. Ideally, the result is smaller clouds, smaller hailstones and softer hailstorms.

Results are still not conclusive on these tests but they're encouraging. Fruit ranchers at Auburn, Calif., have had this protection for two years, and according to Sifferman, harvested their biggest crop in history in 1955.

Similar tests have been going on at Medford, Ore., for three years and the farmers there are satisfied enough that they have again renewed the contract with DRDC.

The Alberta "proving grounds" cover a rectangular of 300,000 acres extending roughly from north of Didsbury to south of Carstairs on its western border and from Three Hills to Swallow and Acme in the east.

More than 20 of the suppressors or "coke burners" had been installed by noon Friday, when the two-month contract began. More are being shipped from the U.S. and at least 35 are expected to be in operation shortly.

Most have been installed mainly northwest of the test area since nearly all hail storms come from that direction.

As in radar installations, the principle is to get a head start so as to "get to cloud before it has a chance to build up."

The burners have an effective radius of several miles and are so placed that every part of the test area is covered by plumes from two of the machines.

Furtherest outpost is at Bearberry, 30 miles west of Didsbury, near the foothills. Others are towards Red Deer at places like Didsbury, Cranston and Markerville. The possibility of a hail-bearing south-west wind is considered with one or two installations as far south as Cochrane.

What makes the Kneehill-Mountain View such a bad hail area? Topography is the main cause, Sifferman explains. "Sharp vertical currents, combined with the sun's heat, produce pockets where cumulus (cumulus) clouds can breed."

These sharp upward currents are caused by wind currents striking the height of land in the area, he added.

Wind velocity is also a factor, especially in the force and damage of the hailstorms. "It's even possible that the Columbia icefields 'about 60 miles away could have a bearing," he suggested.

Farmers in the area have long noted that a hailstorm in late September is always followed immediately by frost. "It's never been satisfactorily explained but many link this phenomenon with proximity to the icefields."

Six agents, three from each municipality, were appointed to collect the funds. They were H. E. Howe of Swallow, Jim Bishop of Three Hills, Ed Kober of Trochu and Tom Morris of Didsbury.

The campaign was a marked success. More than 750 farmers contributed an average of $30 each and many donations were forwarded by farmers outside the test area who would not benefit directly but desired to see the experiment made.

Nobody has gone overboard yet, but everyone is entranced with the possibilities of the little coke burners. As one farmer expressed it, "In 10 years, we hope that seeding clouds in this way will be as common a practice as fertilizing fields is today."

Hail Suppressors Working Overtime

Monday night the recently installed hail suppressors were in action in full force and there was a good reason for it — the worst thunder storm of the year moved in from the west Tuesday afternoon, increasing in intensity as the minutes rolled by.

Thunder, lightning and rain were very much in evidence for quite a few hours and the change in weather lasted until the early hours of the morning.

Reports from the headquarters of the operators of the hail suppression company informed us that up until noon Wednesday no serious hail damage had been suffered in the area being covered by their generators.

Small, soft hail was reported in a one-mile strip four miles west of Cranston and it is understood crops suffered fairly heavy damage in the Bowden - Innisfail district. Both of these spots are outside the target area covered by generators.

Within the target area it is unofficially reported that hail fell 15 miles east of Carstairs and an observer stated it felt just like snow and did no damage. One other area reports soft, slushy hail. No damage.

Mr. Richard Ford of Ottawa is visiting with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ford and Ed Ford from Didsbury, another cousin has also been out at his uncle's this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robertson moved to Edmonton to spend the weekend with the David Gilchrist's, (Margaret Robertson).

Mr. Wilbert Berscht, who is employed by an oil company in Saskatchewan, spent a few days with Herbert Goettlin's, where he once had been employed.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. D. Hayball had to be taken back to hospital last weekend.

A number of ladies of this district took in a few days at the Olds Farm Women's week. They included, Mrs. J. Robertson, who took a car load of women up last Wednesday of the Westcott W.I. also Mrs. A. Konshuk, Mrs. A. Slatten and Mrs. W. Weidner of the Westcott W.I.

Everyone is busy haying, the hay crop is very light and consequently a good many more acres are having to be put up to assure a feed supply. Grain crops are looking beautiful as fields in the district are fairly well headed out and with continued hot weather the harvest should be early barring of course the old bumper hail.

Mr. Ben Sundholm of Big Prairie is helping with the haying on the Herb Goettlin farm.

Federal Election

Next June

The word has gone out from Ottawa that the Liberal caucus is to be ready for an election next June. Best information available sets June 17, a Monday, as the date Opposition cries of "Pou!" to the contrary, there was little real reason for the government to call an election this fall.

The Tories and their press claimed that the people of Canada demanded a change to vote on the pipeline issue and the allied issue of the government's "sell-out" to the United States but this was a very doubtful claim. With the country generally prosperous, employment at a high level, blue skies in sight for the farmer and industry booming, it is almost a certainty that the government would have been returned with about the same majority it holds now.

Four People Killed In Traffic Accident

Just before noon on Saturday a highway accident, the worst in these parts in years, took the lives of four persons and seriously injured a fifth.

Among those dead are three members of the family of Walter Bredo of 1406 20th Ave. N.W. Mr. Bredo's wife, Frances, 36, and two daughters, Wendy Rose, seven and Judy Alice, three, died in a collision north of Carstairs on No. 2 Highway, which also claimed the life of Fred Wutzke, of Mable.

Two cars, one driven by Mrs. Bredo and the second by Mr. Wutzke, met head-on at a point four miles north of Carstairs. The engines of both cars were forced into the back seats by the impact.

The Bredos were returning from a holiday at Lacombe when the tragedy occurred. Funeral services were held at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday at Bethel Baptist Church.

William Torna by, a member of the 2nd Battalion, PPCLI, who was riding in the Wutzke car, suffered severe head injuries.

RCMP of the Crossfield detachment are investigating.

Set this date aside — Wednesday, August 1 — that's the day the Lions are roaring about. The annual Jamboree of the local club kicks off with a giant parade at 12 noon which will be led by the baton-twirling Olds Majorettes and we've a sneaking hunch they'll be headed by a pair of Scottish pipers from Calgary.

Following this there will be fun and games for young and old. Top features include a baseball tournament, which will see Rosebud, Carstairs, Hartman and Westdale going to bat for the $100 prize money.

During the day a horseshoe tournament will interest many adherents of the fine art, children's races for all ages will be run, a horse stake race is a new addition to the big day and as usual a flower and vegetable exhibit will be held in the arena. Entries for the last mentioned event should be made to Clint Reiber at his office or at the arena the day of the show. Don Irwin is taking the entries for the stake race.

Prizes will also be a parade, will be given for: the best decorated float, best decorated car, best decorated bicycle (boy or girl), best dressed rider and horse, best clown, best turn out, old-time depicting the early days, and there'll be a prize for the gal or guy who arrives on the scene with their favorite pet.

There will also be a farm equipment and automobile display on the grounds.

Plans have been made for ponies the kiddies can enjoy a ride on and the usual concession booth will be in operation.

Bingo games, with two $50 blackouts as major prizes, will start in the arena at 8:30 p.m.

See you there!

Decide For Yourself; Do We Need An Addition?

Time is closing in on us — the all-important vote on the proposed addition to Didsbury Municipal Hospital will take place on Saturday, August 1st. A full and detailed report on the project will be mailed to all ratepayers of the district concerned early next week.

Space does not permit a full coverage of the plan here but here is an outline:

Addition: Ten-bed maternity wing, complete with nursery, labor room and case room on ground floor. Basement to contain matron's suite and 12 rooms for staff.

Cost Figures: Population of this district is now 8000. Authorities claim there should be seven beds for every 1000 population. Your hospital has four beds for 1000 persons. In the first six months of this year the hospital was taxed to 92% of capacity. Normal rate paid down is 75%. Quite a spread here!

The Cost: With the town of Carstairs now included in the district it will amount to slightly over one mill on your tax bill. A small charge for a great service.

Grants: It is expected $18,000 in grants will be received from federal and provincial governments.

Will remain the same.

The Purpose: Quite evident — to provide the best hospital and nursing services for

Ramblin'

and

Roamin'

The company that's... installing the natural gas pipe lines in town are working ahead of schedule. Makes for the odd inconvenience in some parts, but when it's all laid down and the gas is flowing into our homes we'll be happy we suffered through the initial stages without beefing too much. From then on it'll be all smooth sailin'!

Another century mark... true enough, it's hit another 100 mark in days since we've been peekin' at that east road to see if it was receiving a new coat from government crews — our counter now adds up to 1 year, plus 105 days since the new uniform was promised. Sure is a lot of holes in that old one.

Two important dates... the most important — hospital vote, Saturday, August 4; the most entertaining, Lions Club Jamboree, Wednesday, August 1.

They're Workin'... hail suppression generators went into action shortly before we grabbed this pen. In other sections of this issue you will find later information on the progress and, perhaps some of the results of the experiment. It's interesting — at this time all we can say is — we hope it works.

We love someone every week... this time around it's the lad who penned the phrase: "Troubled by noise? Let her drive!" Makes sense, doesn't it?

What Other Papers Say . . .

THE BROOKS BULLETIN feels about the liquor question that... there is no crying need for racial changes. A few of the minor inconsistencies could be swept out as they are not enforceable. Sealed mixed drinking could be introduced in the cities suffering from its lack: certain organizations could be granted more leniency for licenses; liquor store hours should be amended to combat bootlegging. If several such conditions were corrected, we believe it would be sufficient at this time.

THE CLARESHOLM LOCAL PRESS says... the imposition of a sales tax at this date should be heartily opposed by all groups in the province. On the surface the suggestion of an extra 2% revenue for municipalities sounds like a good deal if the tax wasn't to be collected from the same group of people. If this were a district where thousands of tourists visited each year, then foreign money would make up a portion of the tax. This not being the case, why another tax to get the same money? The cost of collecting and remitting the sales tax would no doubt be borne by the merchant.

THE HIGH RIVER TIMES thinks the beavers know what they are doing... They say that up in the foothills there is a colony of beavers, very old settlers and highly respected. These beavers, working like beavers, have built up a big strong dam. This spring, for reasons best known to themselves, the beavers deliberately broke down the lower part of their dam, releasing the banked-up water. Human observers thought they were very foolish as all predictions and signs were for a drought year. However, recently heavy rains have justified the action of the beavers. They counted on plenty of rain to restore water level of the rebuilt dam, and they've got it. The story is that this same colony has gone through the same procedure several times in previous years, and have never made a mistake. While men were making dire predictions for the future, these beavers went right ahead with their uncanny knowledge, and the rains came in plenty. Perhaps forecasters should turn their attention to wild life rather than the clouds in long-range weather predictions.

Look Who's Calling The Kettle Black

The Toronto District Trades and Labor Council has passed a resolution urging the Canadian Labor Congress "to work for teeth in the anti-combine legislation, and to press the Federal Government for stiff jail terms for directors of companies operating cartels."

This resolution would come with better grace from some organization that is ruthless of such practices in its own field. The public will not forget that the labor unions have used their political influence to secure for themselves immunity from the provisions of the very act that they would invoke against others, and, shielded by that immunity from prosecution, are doing their best to establish a complete monopoly of the labor market in Canada.

The Canadian Labor Congress is the most powerful group organization in Canada; but it is not so powerful that it can afford to flout the public sense of fairness and decency. There is nothing either fair or decent about a demand that other people be sent to jail for doing the things that the complainants have a special privilege to do themselves.

Oh, was some power the kettle gie us
To see ourself as others see us.
It wad fra mony a blunder free us.
And foolish notion."

Remember Benjamin Franklin's advice: "Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that's the stuff life is made of."

DELAY IN TRANSIT

The small-town business man had been such a pillar of the church that when he passed away the minister posted a sorrowing notice on the church door reading: "Deacon Brown has left us. He departed for his future home in Heaven at 10:30 this morning."

Some time later, the following was added mysteriously to the notice: "Heaven, 4:00 p.m. Great anxiety and confusion here! Deacon Brown long overdue! No news of him yet!"

"Madam, your husband is very ill.
He must have absolute quiet."
"But Doctor, he won't listen to me."
"A good beginning, Madam. a very good beginning."

A troupe of European acrobats brought along with them, to "support" them in their U.S.
circuit tour, a 66-foot tapered aluminum tower. A top this rotates a 26-foot, motor-driven ladder, on which they go through their aerial routine.
If we were in their tight, we know we'd make darn sure that everything holding us up was circuit strong. No doubt that's why they chose aluminum. Plus the fact that this light metal would make much easier work
of erecting the contraption.
We're pleased that they, like so many other people, found just what they wanted in this light,
strong, versatile metal.

"CATCH PHRASES"

Black, brown, white, red, yellow are the colors of those who make up the human family. We each need the tender sympathy, the whole-hearted affection and the whole-hearted good-will of all. We all need the Gospel which is so straight forward that no one need err in the tellings of it. The Gospel needs no
catch phrases.
An examiner read from a Grade
IX paper, "an axiom is something that is so, even when it isn't so." Catch phrases, of one kind and another,
on the air, in our papers, and on our billboards, are there to suggest that certain things are so, even if they are only partly so. Did you ever read? "Tired men our nerves are sick. You need a tonic." Some people having read that repeatedly,
have bought the remedy so glamorized, only to find it put them in the hands of their doctor.

When we speak of a nervous breakdown, or a neurosis, we mean that the body and mind are behaving badly. They are like some people.
They are giving trouble, not because they are sick, but rather because they are mis-behaving. These are functional and not organic diseases.
They are not curable by pills.

A luxury is something that is not a necessity. Here is another field for catch phrases. Let us notice a few. "Do you want your friends to envy you?" "Be up-to-date, wear and so"; "Buy from the right people." "Never again such a bargain." The appeal is made to one's pride, vanity, or desire for show.
"Vanity of vanities says the preacher." It is not wrong either to buy or sell other than necessities. The motive for doing so can be wrong
yes even criminal. Do you buy luxuries that you may enjoy them, or because some catch phrase artist,
sells them to you?

It might be well to remember that catch-words that glamorize luxuries are not written or spoken with the buyers interests in mind.

There is a sign over a hall door which read, "We teach you how to break down sales resistance." Meaning: We teach you how to rob people of their judgement; how to destroy will power, and how to sell to people things they have no real use for.
Our need today is to learn how to value and to offset the power of catch phrases. This would be a step toward freedom from the tiring and dominance of things. We need also to develop some new abilities and capacities, such as will enable us to use and enjoy life's largest values.

Man has been blessed with a threefold approach to this life's meaning and destiny. Firstly, He has been given the power to feel deeply. This enables him to understand, in part at least, how to react toward that which is enjoyable and that which is difficult. It enables him "To rejoice with them that do rejoice and to weep with them that weep," and in all things to share "the mind of Christ."

Secondly; Man is best with intelligence. He can choose, decide, and judge between values. It was written of Jesus that He grew in wisdom and understanding. It is important that man should also increase in his powers to understand; not only his place in the universe and why he is here; but how to fill that place.

Thirdly, man was created with a will. Each is responsible for what he wills, because what man will man lives. Feeling enables man to comprehend eternal love. Intelligence makes it possible for man to rejoice
in that love.

Thus it is that by the right use of feeling and intelligence, man is brought face to face with the privilege and responsibility of knowing,
and rejoicing in a higher will.

A tripod stands balanced on three legs of equal length. Life to be balanced must rest equally on emotion, intelligence and will power,
within the framework of a higher emotion, intelligence and will. So we share a life. "Born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man but of God."

Lone Pine Institute
Holds July Meeting

The Lone Pine W. I. met at the home of Mrs. H. Nelson, Wednesday July 11 with 14 members and one visitor present. Roll call was answered by handing in dresser scarfs
for the local hospital.

Mrs. Ron Milne is holding a Stanley tea during the afternoon of August 1st. Anyone who cares to come is invited. The contest given on Mrs. Nelson was won by Mrs. A.
Hughes.

The 10-cent draw prize was won by Mrs. O. Schneider "God Save the Queen" was then sung and pot luck lunch was served by the hostess to end an enjoyable afternoon. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bruce Shedd on August 8th. Roll call to be answered by handing in a bouquet of flowers to be judged. An auction sale will also be held.

Farm Group Abroad
Oil Sales Tax Idea

We are told that the farm groups
which have been in convention recently have been turning a cold shoulder to the feeler put out by Hon. Mr. Hinman, suggesting the introduction of the sales tax as a way to raise additional revenue to relieve direct taxation on real property.

We can see no need for the sales tax in Alberta. The Provincial Government has sufficient revenue in sight for the next twenty years to make it unnecessary to impose an additional tax. We don't say to rush in and spend the lush oil, mineral and timber revenues as fast as they accrue, but it is reasonable to use a sufficient percentage to relieve the educational burden for the next few years. There is substance to the argument that it is high time the Federal Government steps into the breach and divides up a great portion of the income tax receipts for the benefit of the provinces. The sales tax has been one of the most unpopular means of taxation yet devised. It's like setting up a parking meter for every individual transaction a person makes.

Traffic Accidents
Hit New High

Alberta's traffic accidents took 25 lives in June, ten more than in the same month last year, according to a summary of statistical reports
compiled by the Alberta Safety Council. It was one of the highest single months for some time.

Of last month's death toll, the majority was represented by rural accidents. The R.C.M.P. reported 20 deaths at outside points, as against 13 in June of last year.
Edmonton reported two traffic deaths in June, as against none a year ago. Calgary also had two, an increase of one. One death also was reported in an Alberta town.

Since the first of the year, 1,778 persons have been injured in motor traffic mishaps, compared with 1,679
in the similar period of last year.
The number for June alone was 396,
an increase of 61 over June, 1955.

The R.C.M.P. reported 254 person hurt in accidents at rural points,
which had reported 182 a year ago.
These represented the major part of the increase as Edmonton dropped from 90 to 87 and Calgary from 51
to 34.

OBITUARY

MRS. ANNA ALFKE

A long-time resident of Calgary, Mrs. Anna Matilda Alfke, 83, died in the General Hospital Thursday after a brief illness. She resided at 318
6th Ave. N.E.

Mrs. Alfke was born in Wisconsin, and lived in North Dakota before moving to Cochrane in 1908. In 1917
she came to Calgary where she resided since.

Surviving are three sons, Ardmore,
of Calgary, Curtis of Peace River, and Harold of Lacombe, and her brother, Albert Nelson, of St. Paul, Minn.

Funeral services were held in Jaques Funeral Chapel on Saturday at 1:30 p.m. Rev. Dr. O. B. Switzer officiated. Burial took place in the family plot, Union Cemetery.

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Suder returned from Ontario for a visit with home folks for a few days. On Sunday a group of relatives and friends met them in Calgary and had a picnic lunch in Bowens park. They are with Mrs. Suder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stauffer, at present. This week the Stauffers, Mrs. Lydia Suder and Donald and Dorothy Suder will take a trip on the Jasper highway. Mr. Suder is employed in Hamilton, Ont.

Rev. and Mrs. D. M. Taylor are on holiday at present. They have been visiting in Calgary and Medicine Hat. Mr. Taylor will be engaged in evangelistic and youth work for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eby and family are also on holiday. They are having a real outing at Pine Lake this week.

Mr. Sam Eby is a busy chore-man at the college while the caretaker is away. He has been mowing lawns, milking cows and doing odd chores to help improve the appearance of the Campus.

The school catalogue will soon be available for prospective students. We trust a good number of young people from the community will be writing for their copy, and will register for the winter months. We know of a number who will be in school and we urge others to get their applications in soon. We have one young woman coming from Ontario this year. There are several others from that province who have enquired.

We will be most grateful to have gas installed for the winter. Some interested friends have pledged $10 each toward a new stove. If 60 such persons would do this our stove would be paid for. Think about it.

We have received two boxes of fine books from Mrs. L. Wrigglesworth of Calgary. We appreciate these very much for they will be a splendid addition to our growing library.

Mrs. Pearl Lemont is a guest of the college for a few days. She has been holding a position as supervisor in a high school dormitory in Medicine Hat during the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Dedegard, who have been in Didsbury for some time, will be leaving Calgary on Tuesday for the east. They plan to sail for Denmark in August. Both these fine people are graduates of the college. Mrs. Dedegard has made a splendid contribution to the work of the local hospital during the past year. We will miss them around the campus. They will be gone for five years.

The college will miss Dr. McKenzie in the coming days. He was a good friend of the school and we appreciate him as a doctor for the past couple of years as he ministered to the needs of students and faculty from time to time.

WATCH YOUR SPRUCE TREES: There is widespread concern over the Yellow Headed Spruce saw fly. Most people know them only as the "spruce worms". These worms, which are right now, doing their damage to spruce trees. They eat the needles off the twigs and branches, usually starting at the very end of them. They work fast and can seriously cripple or defoliate a tree in a matter of days.

The worms become full grown in August, then they drop to the ground, their work done for the season. They enter the top soil under the tree and overwinter in cocoon. They pass through a short pupal stage and become adults, emerging from the cocoons as an adult saw-fly.

These flies, about 3/8 of an inch in length and reddish brown in color have four transparent wings. The female fly has a saw like structure near the tip of the abdomen that they use to cut slits in the spruce needles into which they deposit their eggs.

Hatching of the eggs takes place early in June and there we go again with a new generation of worms. These are about 1/2 to 3/4 inch in length, have a reddish brown head and green bodies with black stripes. This program of destruction will go on until the life cycle is broken by an effective spray program and the worms killed while they are feeding on the trees.

This can only be accomplished by the use of some powerful insecticide. The worms are hard to kill so you will have to hit them hard. This is the third year that we are having to deal with this pest, and we have found that ALDRIN is very effective. You mix this with water at the rate of 1 ounce to two gallons of water and thoroughly wet the tree to the point of run off.

BERGEN NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Trygve Halvorsen have returned from their holidays spent in B.C.

Barry Wiens spent a short time in the hospital following a tractor accident. He was operating the machine on his father's farm when it up-ended, pinning him underneath. He was indeed fortunate that his injuries were not more serious.

Mrs. Roy Reid is recuperating after a fall from a horse which bolted when it became frightened by a dog. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Sande were weekend visitors at the Dave Davidson home.

Ladies' Aid will be at Mrs. Olson's on Thursday.

Mrs. Howard Gilmore of White Rock, B.C. visited this week at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. Haug and family, on her first trip home since visiting to B.C. in 1948. She also visited relatives and friends at Calgary, Didsbury, Olds and Harnett.

Les Lyle credits the use of his safety hat with saving his life when he was hit by a falling tree while working in the bush at Mel Erick's camp west of Sundre. He is under the doctor's care for injuries to the back.

DISCRETION

A prairie baseball game was being umpired by a runt of a fellow. An enormous player was the plate and an equally large catcher stood behind him. The count was one and one.

The little umpire, watching the pitch size, squeezed the corner, "Two what?" snarled the catcher. "Two what?" growled the batter.

The umpire looked from one brute to the other and then whispered, "Too close to tell."

EAST NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mrs. Dorothy Page is visiting with her brother at Rossland, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Milne and children spent the weekend visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Coates of Wardlaw.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dowell on the birth of a son. Mary Page was home for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hansen of Bellingham, Wash., visited with their aunt, Mrs. Dowell and Mrs. Ed Tidball of Canby.

Karen and Lisa Brander spent several days last week visiting in town with their grandmother, Mrs. Brander.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dans of Edmonton were dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Brander and family last week.

The barn dance held at Mr. and Mrs. Hansen of Allingham last Wednesday evening was well attended and every one reported having had a good time.

Mr. Jack Owens has returned home after having spent a few weeks at the Bert Smith home at Byemore.

Mrs. Stanley Brander and Mrs. Brander Sr., spent Sunday in Calgary visiting with Sandra Brander, who is a patient in the Red Cross Crippled Children's Hospital.

WEDDINGS

BROUSSEAU - MONTGOMERY

Miss Shirley Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Montgomery, Milnes Landing, became the bride of Mr. Ronald Stanley Brousseau, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brousseau, Metehosin, at a ceremony in Holy Trinity church, Sooke.

Archdeacon R. Little officiated at the service, at which the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her floor length gown was of white tulle and lace over tulle worn with a long-sleeved lace jacket. Her chapel veil, trimmed with seed pearls and rhinestones, was held by a coronet of seed pearls, and she carried a cascade of red roses and white carnations. Her pearl necklace and earrings were a gift from the groom.

Mrs. A. R. Montgomery was maid of honor for her sister-in-law, and bridesmaids were Miss Evelyn Arthur and Miss Leona Pickerl. They were gowned alike in blue brocade taffeta with ballerina-length skirts, blue accessories and head-dresses of pink feathered carnations. Their bouquets were of pink and white carnations. Miss Sherry Montgomery, niece of the bride, was flower girl, in white floral nylon over blue taffeta. She wore pink carnations in her hair and carried a basket of the same flowers.

Mr. Robert Brousseau was best man for his brother, and another brother, Mr. Kenneth Brousseau, ushered with the bride's brother, Mr. Harry Montgomery.

After a reception at Grouse Nest Lodge, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Seattle. When they return to Victoria they plan to live at 2712 Rock Bay Avenue.

REDEEMER LUTHERAN TO HOLD ANNUAL PICNIC

The annual congregational picnic of Redeemer Lutheran Church will be held on Sunday July 29, at the Rugby hall. The outing for young and old will begin with a regular service in the hall, beginning at 11:00 a.m. There will, therefore, be no service at the church next Sunday. Following the service, a joint noon-day meal will be served with everyone bringing a pot-luck meal. The afternoon will be devoted to sports — races for the children and also for the old folk. And, what seems to have become an annual event, then there will be two softball games: the married men against the single men and finally the married women against the single women. As in past years, it is expected that the gathering will break up at about 5:00 p.m. so that everyone can return home for chores.

For the past few years these annual picnics have been held at the close of Vacation Bible School. This year Vacation Bible School is being held at the Church from July 16 to July 27. During the first week 49 children were enrolled. It is anticipated that during the last week the number will increase considerably. The teaching staff for this year's school is comprised of Miss Bertha Jans, Miss Elizabeth Fox, Mrs. E. B. Fox and Rev. E. B. Fox. During the forenoon period the children study the matter of prayer. In the afternoon they do seat work. During the first week each child made a silhouette plaque of a boy or a girl kneeling in prayer. During the final week the children will be busy making model wooden churches. These models have been pre-cut and the children sand the wood, glue them together and varnish them. To the children of Redeemer, V.B.S. is a highlight of the summer vacation.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The ever-availability of the healing power of the Christ, Truth, will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday.

Christ Jesus' healing of the centurion's servant, as recorded in Luke's Gospel (chap. 7) will be among the scriptural passages to be read in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Truth."

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (142:31): "Truth is God's remedy for error of every kind, and Truth destroys only what is untrue. Hence the fact that, today, as yesterday, Christ casts out evils and heals the sick."

The Golden Text is from Psalm 146:11: "Teach my thy way, O Lord: I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name."
